WORK EXPERIENCE placements in Red Bee Media CREATIVE

2009 / 2010

Who are we ?

Red Bee Media create, manage and deliver content. We are responsible for the promotion and playout of all BBC and UKTV channels, and also work with a wide range of other clients from Discovery to Sci-Fi, and from Orange to Nike.

Our Creative department has won more awards for broadcast promotion & branding than any other UK or international company, thanks to its highly motivated and dedicated creative teams.

What do we do ?

Red Bee CREATIVE are the crack team who devise all those memorable bits between the programmes on tv. We're talking the trailers and idents which are internationally acclaimed for their originality, flair and wit. But our work is not only on tv, we transform media brands by creating content for any platform and on any device. Our teams specialize in all types of short-form content, so our projects range from advertiser-funded programmes to interactive ad's.

What's on offer ?

If you are a budding Creative, we can offer you the chance to experience working in a unique creative agency.

Our creative team welcomes potential Copywriters, Art Directors, Graphic Designers, Producers and Directors.

What's the deal ?

We're always looking for new people with big ideas. You supply the enthusiasm and ambition, and we'll give you the chance to use your creative potential in anger. If you think you've got the ability to join our Creative team, check out the opportunity below.

TWO-FOUR WEEK work experience placement

Open to graduates / post-graduates starting out on creative careers

You will join a creative team working on innovative promotional campaigns for TV, Print and Web. You will work alongside experienced Creatives and Designers, and by the end of your placement will have devised campaigns in response to real briefs, and will have worked on at least one project that will be used by our clients.

You will have gained valuable experience, and should even end up with something great to put on your showreel. The placement could stand you in good stead to apply for a position as a Trainee Creative with Red Bee in the future.
